SUBJECT: ACTION REQUEST: DRAFT SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION

REF: STATE 6467

¶1. (SBU) SUMMARY AND ACTION REQUEST. Per Reftel instructions, Ambassador Rice along with Ambassadors of Croatia, France, Germany, and Russia ("Group of Friends") have achieved "ad referendum" agreement on the text of a Security Council resolution that would extend the mandate of the UN mission for four months, but includes additional elements suggested by France. During consultations of the whole on February 9, Ambassador Rice along with French and U.K. Ambassadors successfully warded off an attempt by the Russian federation to change the name of the agenda item for consultations on Tuesday February 10 from "Situation in Georgia" to "UNSCR 1839". ACTION REQUEST: USUN requests Department approval by 11:00 on Tuesday February 10 on the resolution text contained in paragraph 5, as the Group of Friends wish to circulate it informally to the full Council.
END SUMMARY AND ACTION REQUEST.

¶2. (SBU) Ambassadors Rice and DiCarlo reached "ad referendum" agreement with Ambassadors of the Group of Friends on February 9 on the text of a Security Council resolution that would roll over the current UNOMIG mandate for four months, with a June 15 expiration date. Per reftel instructions, the draft resolution refers to Resolution 1808, which by reference reaffirms the commitment of member state to the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Georgia. The resolution calls for provision 2(a) of the former Moscow Agreement to be respected, pending agreement on a revised security regime and calls for the intensification of efforts to address security and stability issues and the return of IDPs through the Geneva discussions. The resolution expresses the intention of the Security Council to outline elements of a future presence by the mandate's June 15 expiration, taking into account the Secretary-General's recommendations, the Geneva discussions, and the situation on the ground.

¶3. (SBU) In Security Council Consultations on February 9, Ambassador Rice, along with U.K. and French Ambassadors, deflected an attempt by the Russian Federation to have the agenda item for consultations on Tuesday February 10 changed, from the "Situation in Georgia" to UNSCR 1839. Japanese PermRep Takasu had raised the issue at the request of the Russian Federation. Ambassador Rice pointed out that a decision of the Council (i.e., 9 votes for a procedural decision) would be necessary to change the agenda item, that the U.S. would be opposed, and that we believed a decision by the Council to change the name of the agenda item would give an unintended signal on the Council's commitment to Georgia's sovereignty and territorial integrity. Russian Ambassador Vitaly Churkin did not pursue the issue, and it was dropped. Tuesday's agenda has subsequently been published, and reads, "The Situation in Georgia."

¶4. (SBU) ACTION REQUEST: USUN requests Department concurrence by 11:00 A.M. on Tuesday February 10 to informally circulate to the full Council the draft text in paragraph 5.
